Dear Friends,

The December 2018 issue of the magazine Columbia from the Knights of Columbus includes a wonderful interview with Jean Vanier—Canadian philosopher, humanitarian, and founder of L’Arche communities. In that interview, Vanier thanks the Knights for their support of our most physically and mentally challenged brothers and sisters through the ministry of L’Arche; he also reminds the Knights of who they are called to be:

The Knights of Columbus are essentially men who have “succeeded” and who share their possessions and their talents to help others, so I think of this extraordinary desire of the Knights to help.

Never forget that what’s most important is to encounter Jesus, to know Jesus. His mission is to give life in abundance, and he wants his disciples to give life in abundance, together as a community.

Today, in a very specific way, Knights of Columbus are called to encounter the weak and speak with their hearts to those in need. When you look at someone with tenderness, you transform them. Such a look says: “You can do it—all by yourself. You are a child of God, and you are precious.”

Vanier’s words are a good reminder of who we all—as disciples of the Lord Jesus—are called to be. May all five of our Skagit Valley Catholic churches be vibrant and joyful communities where Jesus’ gift of “life in abundance” is experienced, celebrated, and shared.

Segundo domingo del tiempo ordinario
20 de enero de 2013

En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo les dice a los corintios (y a nosotros) que todos nuestros dones son de Dios y que son dados, no para nosotros solos, sino para el bien común. Pero la generosidad de Dios no tiene límites: el milagro en Caná nos recuerda que cada vez que hacemos lo que Dios nos pide, ¡Él puede convertir nuestros regalos de agua en vino!

Queridos amigos,

El número de diciembre de 2018 de la revista Columbia de los Caballeros de Colón incluye una maravillosa entrevista con Jean Vanier, filósofo canadiense, humanitario y fundador de las comunidades de L’Arche. En esa entrevista, Vanier agradece a los Caballeros por su apoyo a nuestros hermanos y hermanas con mayores desafíos físicos y mentales a través del ministerio de L’Arche; también les recuerda a los caballeros quiénes son llamados a ser:

Los Caballeros de Colón son esencialmente hombres que han "tenido éxito" y que comparten sus posesiones y sus talentos para ayudar a otros, por lo que pienso en este deseo extraordinario de los Caballeros de ayudar.

* Nunca olvides que lo más importante es encontrar a Jesús, conocer a Jesús. Su misión es dar vida en abundancia, y él quiere que sus discípulos den vida en abundancia, juntos como una comunidad.

* Hoy, de una manera muy específica, los Caballeros de Colón están llamados a encontrarse con los débiles y hablar con sus corazones a los necesitados. Cuando miras a alguien con temura, lo transformas. Dicha mirada dice: "Puedes hacerlo, todo por ti mismo. Eres un hijo de Dios, y eres precioso. [énfasis mío]

Las palabras de Vanier son un buen recordatorio de lo que todos nosotros, como discípulos del Señor Jesús, estamos llamados a ser. Que las cinco iglesias católicas de Skagit Valley sean comunidades vibrantes y alegres donde se experimenta, se celebra y se comparte el regalo de Jesús de "la vida en abundancia".

THANK YOU: Many, many thanks to all who participated in the our Annual St. Martin de Porres Men’s Shelter Clothing Drive across all five Skagit Valley churches. On January 9th we packed 85 boxes (many of them quite big) of much-needed warm clothes and toiletries that we delivered the next day to the men-over-50 homeless shelter on the Seattle waterfront. We were welcomed as their largest donor of the year. They look forward to our delivery, timely during the coldest part of the winter, as even more benefit from our charitable contributions than just the 200 men who are sheltered there. Steve Miller, Sacred Heart Parish

Many thanks to Steve Miller for the hard work of coordinating the annual St. Martin de Porres clothing collection!

March for Life Bus to Olympia
Tuesday, January 22nd, the bus leaves from ICC parking lot at 8:30 a.m. and will return around 5:30 p.m. Bring a sack lunch. Call 360-661-0521 to reserve your seat.

Flu Season and Mass in the Skagit Valley
This is the peak of flu season and it is important that we do everything we can to minimize the risk for our brothers and sisters with compromised or weak immune systems. If you are suffering from the flu or a serious cold, please stay home and get better; the Church recognizes sickness as a valid reason to miss Mass. Please minimize skin to skin contact, avoiding shaking hands at the Sign of Peace and holding hands during the Our Father. Finally, if there is any likelihood of infection, please refrain from receiving the Precious Blood for the sake of all who will share that cup; the doctrine of concomitance assures us that when we receive Christ under either species, in this case his Most Holy Body, we have received the whole Christ: body, blood, soul, and divinity.

Fr. Tom

Second Collection Next Weekend
The Northwest Catholic Collection at all valley churches is the weekend of January 26/27. Northwest Catholic is the official publication of the Archdiocese of Seattle and is a gift to every registered Catholic household in Western Washington.

GRACIAS: Muchas, muchas gracias a todos los que participaron en nuestra Colecta Anual de Ropa de Refugio para Hombres de San Martín de Porres en las cinco iglesias del Valle de Skagit. El 9 de enero empacamos 85 cajas (muchas de ellas bastante grandes) de ropa de abrigo y artículos de aseo muy necesarios que entregamos al día siguiente en el refugio para hombres mayores de 50 años en la costa de Seattle. Fuimos recibidos como su mayor donante del año. Esperan nuestra entrega, oportuna durante la parte más fría del invierno, como un beneficio aún mayor de nuestras contribuciones caritativas para los 200 hombres que están albergados allí.

Steve Miller, Parroquia del Sagrado Corazón

Muchas gracias a Steve Miller por el duro trabajo de Coordinación de la vestimenta anual de San Martín de Porres. ¡colección!

Temporada de Gripe y Misa en el Valle de Skagit
Este es el tiempo de la temporada de gripe y es importante que hagamos todo lo posible para minimizar el riesgo para nuestra hermanos y hermanas comprometidos o débiles del sistema inmune. Si padece gripe o un resfriado grave, quédese en casa y mejore; la Iglesia reconoce que la enfermedad es una razón válida para faltar a la misa. Minimice el contacto piel con piel, evite darle la mano al Signo de la Paz y durante el Padre Nuestro. Finalmente, si existe alguna posibilidad de infección, absténgase de recibir la Sangre Preciosa por el bien de todos los que compartirán esa copa; La doctrina de la concomitancia nos asegura que cuando se recibe a Cristo bajo cualquiera de las especies, en este caso, su Cuerpo Santisimo, hemos recibido a todo Cristo: cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad.

Padre Tom

Segunda Colecta el Próximo Fin de Semana
La Colecta para la revista Católica del Noroeste en todas las iglesias del valle es el fin de semana del 26/27 de enero. Northwest Catholic es la publicación oficial de la Arquidiócesis de Seattle y es un regalo para todos los hogares católicos registrados en el oeste de Washington.

Homeless Men’s Clothing Collection: Thanks to all who participated in our recent valley-wide Men’s Clothing Drive for the St. Martin de Porres Homeless Shelter in Seattle. Special appreciation goes to Gene Thomas and John Bergstrom for Collecting, storing and helping to deliver your collected items for packing.

Angel Tree Update
Catholic Community Services would like to thank our parishioners who responded to those in need this Christmas season. Jana Jeffs has reported they received 193 gift cards with a total value of $3,825. This exceeded last year’s Angel Tree donations of $3,660. She stated they are truly astounded and blessed by our parishioner’s support of this project.

Second Collection Next Weekend
The Northwest Catholic Collection is the weekend of January 26/27. Northwest Catholic is the official publication of the Archdiocese of Seattle and is a gift to every registered Catholic household in Western Washington. Please be generous. Thank you.

English Confirmation classes begin next Sunday, January 27th. It is not too late to register your teen. You can register at the ICC Parish Center. Bring a copy of your child’s birth and baptism certificate. Fee is $20. Please contact Sarah Rutherford if you have questions at rutherford@icrsweb.org.

Street Light Needed at Crosswalk In Front Of Church Entrance
We have had many complaints from drivers about not being able to see pedestrians using the crosswalk during the evening because of darkness and cars parked along 15th street. Both our parishioners and our school children use this crosswalk. The city of Mount Vernon may install a street light at the crosswalk if enough people call the Public Works Dept (360-336-6204) and ask the city for a street light at that location. The Traffic Safety Committee meets every other month. Their next meeting is in early February and people need to call Public Works in January.

Necesitamos una luz de cruce de peatones en frente de la entrada de la iglesia

Hemos recibido muchas quejas de los conductores por no poder ver a los peatones que usan el paso de peatones durante la noche debido a la oscuridad y los autos estacionados en la calle 15. Tanto nuestros feligreses como nuestros niños de la escuela usan este paso de peatones. La ciudad de Mount Vernon puede instalar una luz de calle en el cruce de peatones si suficientes personas llaman al Departamento de Obras Públicas (360-336-6204) y le piden a la ciudad una luz de cruce de peatones en ese lugar. El Comité de Seguridad de Tráfico se reúne cada dos meses. Su próxima reunión es a principios de Febrero por lo que necesitan llamar a Obras Públicas en enero.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s second reading, St Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits—the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

Sanctuary Candle
For the week of January 20, candle will burn in memory of:
Thelma Taylor

March for Life Please join us on Tuesday, January 22nd for March for Life in Olympia. A bus will leave from Immaculate Conception Church at 8:30 AM and will return around 4:30 PM. For questions or more information call Katy at 360.661.0521

Looking to Get More Connected at St. Charles?
If you are a woman wanting to feel more connected to others in our parish, please join St. Charlie’s Angels, a women’s guild that provides a stronger sense of church community and finds ways to enhance church facilities and grounds. Meets the 4th Tuesday of the month + other social/spiritual opportunities. Interested? Please come to our Jan. 22 meeting, 6:30-8 pm in the Mother Theresa Room. Or contact Carmen Werder, 360-766-6239, cwerder02@gmail.com

We are grateful for your generous support of the needs of our Parish… Thank You.
A note from Fr. Moore:

"We are so excited that so many of you have signed up for online giving! However, one of the downsides of this convenience is that we pay a bank fee every time we charge your credit card. To minimize the expense to our parish, would you be willing to combine your donations into once a month gift? That change can be made from the OSV app for extreme convenience. Changing to a direct withdrawal from a checking account is another way to help, if you prefer. Thank you!"
