"Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’”
LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

Dear Friends

I received an email today from Immaculate Conception parent Marty Reese sharing his daughter Mary’s experience at Vacation Bible School (VBS) last month:

Hello Father, Just to say how great VBS was put together and how much my daughter Mary loved it and would come home sing songs about God and how much fun she had. One quote from her........ "It is called school, but it is so much fun!" :) Thank you for supporting events like this. They will bear so much fruit in the long run. Sincerely, Marty Reese

I agree with Marty and with Mary: ministries like VBS are “so much fun” and they “bear so much fruit in the long run.”

Thank you to all the Skagit Valley parishioners who supported and participated in VBS this summer at Immaculate Conception in Mount Vernon and Sacred Heart in La Conner. Trisha Van Selus (I.C.) and Shari Mentel (S.H.) both did a great job of coordinating a phenomenal group of adult volunteers. In all, more than 90 children and youth participated. Thank you all!

Blessings,

Fr. Tom

15º domingo del tiempo ordinario
"Jesús le dijo: Vete y haz tu lo mismo". Lucas 10:37.

Este fue el mandato de Jesús al final de la historia del buen samaritano. ¿Sabías que los samaritanos y judíos los despreciaban? otro. La moraleja de la historia es amar a nuestro prójimo. Eso significa amar a alguien que quizás no conozcas o alguien que se ve diferente a ti o alguien que no te gusta. Todo sin esperar nada a cambio.

Queridos amigos

Hoy recibí un correo electrónico de un feligres de la Inmaculada Concepción, Marty Reese, que compartió la experiencia de su hija Mary en la Escuela Bíblica de Vacaciones del mes pasado:

Hola Padre,
Solo para decir lo bien que se organizó la Escuela Bíblica de Verano, cuánto le encantó a mi hija Mary y verla regresar a casa cantando canciones sobre Dios y ver cuánta diversión tuvo. Algo que dijo ella ... "Se llama escuela, ¡pero es muy divertida!" :) Gracias por apoyar eventos como este. A largo plazo darán mucho fruto. Sinceramente, Marty Reese.

Estoy de acuerdo con Marty y con Mary: los ministerios como la Escuela Bíblica de Verano son "muy divertidos" y "dan mucho fruto a largo plazo".

Gracias a todos los feligreses de Skagit Valley que apoyaron y participaron en la EBV este verano de la Iglesia Inmaculada Concepción en Mount Vernon y en la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón en La Conner. Trisha Van Selus (I.C.) y Shari Mentel (S.C.) hicieron un gran trabajo coordinando un grupo fenomenal de adultos voluntarios. En total, participaron más de 90 niños y jóvenes. ¡Gracias a todos!

Bendiciones
Padre Tom

Por favor, recuerde a la Iglesia y a la Escuela en su testamento.

However, I also know that an unexpected pregnancy can bring joy, excitement, awe, gratitude, and deeper love than I knew was possible—not to mention the little bundle who inspires these sentiments!”

July 14th, 2019 Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Jesus has demolished all boundary expectations. It is not social definitions such as class, religion, gender, or ethnicity that determines who is our neighbor. A neighbor is a person who acts with compassion toward another. The point becomes not who deserves to be loved as I love myself, but that I become a person who treats everyone with compassion. Loyola Press
