14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God’s Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

Friends, Last Sunday I shared the first part of Pope Francis’ powerful Pentecost homily from June 9, 2019. Below is the second and final installment.

Blessings, Fr. Tom

At today’s frenzied pace of life, harmony seems swept aside. Pulled in a thousand directions, we run the risk of nervous exhaustion and so we react badly to everything. Then we look for the quick fix, popping one pill after another to keep going, one thrill after another to feel alive. But more than anything else, we need the Spirit: he brings order to our frenzy. The Spirit is peace in the midst of restlessness, confidence in the midst of discouragement, joy in sadness, youth in aging, courage in the hour of trial. Amid the stormy currents of life, he lowers the anchor of hope. As Saint Paul tells us today, the Spirit keeps us from falling back into fear, for he makes us realize that we are beloved children (cf. Rom 8:15). He is the Consoler, who brings us the tender love of God. Without the Spirit, our Christian life unravels, lacking the love that brings everything together. Without the Spirit, Jesus remains a personage from the past; with the Spirit, he is a person alive in our own time. Without the Spirit, Scripture is a dead letter; with the Spirit it is a word of life. A Christianity without the Spirit is joyless moralism; with the Spirit, it is life.

The Holy Spirit does not bring only harmony within us but also among us. He makes us Church, building different parts into one harmonious edifice. Saint Paul explains this well when, speaking of the Church, he often repeats a single word, “variety”: varieties of gifts, varieties of services, varieties of activities (1 Cor 12:4-6). We differ in the variety of our qualities and gifts. The Holy Spirit distributes them creatively, so that they are not all identical. On the basis of this variety, he builds unity. From the beginning of creation, he has done this. Because he is a specialist in changing chaos into cosmos, in creating harmony. He is a specialist in creating diversity, enrichment, individuality. He is the creator of this diversity and, at the same time, the one who brings harmony and gives unity to diversity. He alone can do these two things.

In today’s world, lack of harmony has led to stark divisions. There are those who have too much and those who have nothing, those who want to live to a hundred and those who cannot even be born. In the age of the computer, distances are increasing: the more we use the social media, the less social we are becoming. We need the Spirit of unity to regenerate us as Church, as God’s People and as a human family. May he regenerate us! There is always a temptation to build “nests”, to cling to our little group, to the things and people we like, to resist all contamination. It is only a small step from a nest to a sect, even within the Church. How many times do we define our identity in opposition to someone or something! The Holy Spirit, on the other hand, brings together those who were distant, unites those far off, brings home those who were scattered. He blends different tonalities in a single harmony, because before all else he sees goodness. He looks at individuals before looking at their mistakes, at persons before their actions. The Spirit shapes the Church and the world as a place of sons and daughters, brothers and sisters. These nouns come before any adjectives. Nowadays it is fashionable to hurl adjectives and, sadly, even insults. It could be said that we are living in a culture of adjectives that forgets about the nouns that name the reality of things. But also a culture of the insult as the first reaction to any opinion that I do not share. Later we come to realize that this is harmful, to those insulted but also to those who insult. Repaying evil for evil, passing from victims to aggressors, is no way to go through life. Those who live by the Spirit, however, bring peace where there is discord, concord where there is conflict. Those who are spiritual repay evil with good. They respond to arrogance with meekness, to malice with goodness, to shouting with silence, to gossip with prayer, to defeatism with encouragement.

To be spiritual, to savour the harmony of the Spirit, we need to adopt his way of seeing things. Then everything changes: with the Spirit, the Church is the holy People of God, mission is not proselytism but the spread of joy, as others become our brothers and sisters, all loved by the same Father. Without the Spirit, though, the Church becomes an organization, her mission becomes propaganda, her communion an exertion. Many Churches spend time making pastoral plans, discussing any number of things. That seems to be the road to unity, but it is not the way of the Spirit; it is the road to division. The Spirit is the first and last need of the Church (cf. Saint Paul VI, General Audience, 29 November 1972). He “comes where he is loved, where he is invited, where he is expected” (Saint Bonaventure, Sermon for the Fourth Sunday after Easter).

Brothers and sisters, let us daily implore the gift of the Spirit. Holy Spirit, harmony of God, you who turn fear into trust and self-centredness into self-gift, come to us. Grant us the joy of the resurrection and perennially young hearts. Holy Spirit, our harmony, you who make of us one body, pour forth your peace upon the Church and our world. Holy Spirit, make us builders of concord, sowers of goodness, apostles of hope.

Please remember the Church and school in your will.
Amigos, el domingo pasado compartí la primera parte de la poderosa homilía de Pentecostés del Papa Francisco a partir del 9 de junio de 2019. A continuación se muestra la segunda y última entrega.

Bendiciones, P. Tom

Hoy, con las prisas que nos impone nuestro tiempo, parece que la armonía está marginada: reclamados por todas partes, corremos el riesgo de estallar, movidos por un continuo nerviosismo que nos hace reaccionar mal a todo. Y se busca la solución rápida, una pastilla detrás de otra para seguir adelante, una emoción detrás de otra para sentirse vivos. Pero lo que necesitamos sobre todo es el Espíritu: es Él quien pone orden en el frenesí. Él es la paz en la inquietud, la confianza en el desánimo, la alegría en la tristeza, la juventud en la vejez, el valor en la prueba. Es Él quien, en medio de las corrientes tormentosas de la vida, fija el ancla de la esperanza. Él es el Espíritu el que, como dice hoy san Pablo, nos impide volver a caer en el miedo porque hace que nos sintamos hijos amados (cf. Rm 8,15). Él es el Consolador, que nos transmite la ternura de Dios. Sin el Espíritu, la vida cristiana está deshilachada, privada del amor que todo lo une. Sin el Espíritu, Jesús sigue siendo un personaje del pasado, con el Espíritu es una persona viva hoy; sin el Espíritu la Escritura es letra muerta, con el Espíritu es Palabra de vida. Un cristianismo sin el Espíritu es un moralismo sin alegría; con el Espíritu es vida.

El Espíritu Santo no solo trae armonía dentro, sino también fuera, entre los hombres. Nos hace Iglesia, compone las diferentes partes en un solo edificio armonico. San Pablo lo explica bien cuando, hablando de la Iglesia, repite a menudo una palabra, “diversidad”: «diversidad de carismas, diversidad de actuaciones, diversidad de ministerios» (1 Co 12,4-6). Somos diferentes en la variedad de cualidades y dones. El Espíritu los distribuye con imaginación, sin nivelar, sin homologar. Y a partir de esta diversidad construye la unidad. Lo hace desde la creación, porque es un especialista en transformar el caos en cosmos, en poner armonía. Es especialista en crear la diversidad, las riquezas; cada uno la suya, diversa. Él es el creador de esta diversidad y, al mismo tiempo, es Aquel que armoniza, que da la armonía y da unidad a la diversidad. Solo Él puede hacer estas dos cosas.

Hoy en el mundo, las desarmonías se han convertido en verdaderas divisiones: están los que tienen demasiado y los que no tienen nada, los que buscan vivir cien años y los que no pueden nacer. En la era de la tecnología estamos distanciados: más “social” pero menos sociales. Necesitamos el Espíritu de unidad, que nos regenere como Iglesia, como Pueblo de Dios y como humanidad entera. Que nos regenere. Siempre existe la tentación de construir “nidos”: de reunirse en torno al propio grupo, a las propias preferencias, el igual con el igual, alérgicos a cualquier contaminación. Y del nido a la secta, el paso es corto, también dentro de la Iglesia. ¡Cuántas veces se define la propia identidad contra alguien o contra algo! El Espíritu Santo, en cambio, reúne a los distantes, une a los alejados, trae de vuelta a los dispersos. Mezcla diferentes tonos en una sola armonía, porque ve sobre todo lo bueno, mira al hombre antes que sus errores, a las personas antes que sus acciones. El Espíritu plasma a la Iglesia, plasma el mundo como lugares de hijos y hermanos. Hijos y hermanos: sustantivos que vienen antes de cualquier otro adjetivo. Está de moda adjetivar, lamentablemente también insultar. Podemos decir que vivimos en una cultura del adjetivo que olvida el sustantivo de las cosas; y también en una cultura del insulto, que es la primera respuesta a una opinión que yo no comparto. Después nos damos cuenta de que hace daño, tanto al que es insultado como también al que insulta. Devolviendo mal por mal, pasando de víctimas a verdugos, no se vive bien. En cambio, el que vive según el Espíritu lleva paz donde hay discordia, concordia donde hay conflicto. Los hombres espirituales devuelven bien por mal, responden a la arrogancia con mansedumbre, a la malicia con bondad, al ruido con el silencio, a las murmuraciones con la oración, al derrotismo con la sonrisa.

Para ser espirituales, para gustar la armonía del Espíritu, debemos poner su mirada por encima de la nuestra. Entonces todo cambia: con el Espíritu, la Iglesia es el Pueblo santo de Dios; la misión, el contagio de la alegría, no el proselitismo; los otros hermanos y hermanas, amados por el mismo Padre. Pero sin el Espíritu, la Iglesia es una organización; la misión, propaganda; la comunión, un esfuerzo. Y muchas Iglesias llevan a cabo acciones programáticas en este sentido de planes pastorales, de discusiones acerca de todo. Parece que sea ese el camino para unirnos, pero ese no es el camino del Espíritu, es el camino de la división. El Espíritu es la primera y última necesidad de la Iglesia (cf. S. Pablo VI, Audiencia general, 29 noviembre 1972). Él «viene donde es amado, donde es invitado, donde se lo espera» (S. Buenaventura, Sermón del IV domingo después de Pascua).

Hermanos y hermanas, recémosle todos los días. Espíritu Santo, armonía de Dios, tú que transformas el miedo en confianza y la clausura en don, ven a nosotros. Danos la alegría de la resurrección, la juventud perenne del corazón. Espíritu Santo, armonía nuestra, tú que nos haces un solo cuerpo, infunde tu paz en la Iglesia y en el mundo. Espíritu Santo, haznos artesanos de concordia, sembradores de bien, apóstoles de esperanza.
“Father and maker of all, you adorn all creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in your image and likeness. Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.”

The Carmelite Institute of Spirituality in Stanwood will have a Day of Recollection on Saturday, July 13th. "GUIDANCE by the Holy Spirit: GOD-U-I-DANCE" will be presented by Fr. Thomas Koller, O.C.D., SSL, DMin. In this presentation we will be discussing some of St. John Paul's Theology of the Body and the healing of the complementary masculine and feminine genius using interactive videos. The day begins with a 9:00 mass at St. Cecilia Church, followed by the presentation at 10am, a question and reflection period with lunch at noon at the St. Teresa House (next door at 27008 78th Ave NW). Coffee, tea and snacks are provided. Please bring a sack lunch. The Carmelite Bookstore and Gift Shop will be open during lunch (12-12:45pm).

The day concludes with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 1:00 pm with Benediction and concluding by 2pm.

All are welcome. A $20 free-will donation would be appreciated.

2019 Triennial National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA

Today we take up the Archdiocese for the Military Services Collection (AMS). The ministry of the Archdiocese for the Military is “serving those who serve”. The AMS is here to meet the spiritual needs of Catholics who are serving—or have served—our country at home and abroad. Please be generous today.

Hoy llevaremos a cabo la colecta para el ministerio de fuerzas armadas de nuestra Arquidiócesis (AMS). El ministerio de la Arquidiócesis para el Ejército es "servir a aquellos que sirven". La AMS está aquí para satisfacer las necesidades espirituales de los católicos que están sirviendo, o han servido, a nuestro país, en el país y en el extranjero. Por favor, sea generoso hoy.

ORDER YOUR BRICK TODAY!
Soon we will be closing out the Tribute Brick project in order to place our order and lay them in the front entrance of the church. We have many who have ordered a brick and have been patiently waiting to see their brick laid. This will be your last opportunity to commemorate that special occasion in your family’s life: Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, Marriage/Anniversary, or Graduation. Order forms are at the parish office or in the narthex of the church. Bricks are $100 (cash, check or debit/credit.) Last date to order a brick is September 15.

VBS 2019 at Immaculate Conception was a success!
We had over 60 youth attend VBS June 24th—28th, lead by Trisha Van Selus and an amazing group of volunteers! THANK YOU to all those that helped during the week. Your service has made a difference in these children’s lives, bringing faith alive while having fun!

YMP welcomed St Leo Parish, June 23-28. The youth helped out in the Tri-Parish Food bank and also had a fiesta with the children at the migrant camps. Special thanks to Fr. Elias Puentes for celebrating Thursday Mass at the camp.

St. Charles is still needing someone to sit with the Eucharist from 5:00 – 6:00pm each Friday. Our other hours are covered, but we consistently do not have anyone at 5pm. If you are interested, no need to sign up, simply show up.

San Carlos todavía necesita urgentemente a alguien que se sienta con la Eucaristía de 5:00pm a 6:00 pm cada viernes. Nuestras otras horas están cubiertas, pero constantemente no tenemos a nadie a las 5 pm. Si usted está interesado, no hay necesidad de registrarse, simplemente presentarse.
