25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).”  LUC 16:13

Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

Dear Friends,

You may have noticed a new name in our Eucharistic Prayers At Masses these past couple of weeks. Instead of naming “Francis our Pope and Peter our Bishop,” we now pray for “Francis our Pope and Paul our Bishop.” Our new Archbishop for the Archdiocese of Seattle is the Most Rev. Paul Etienne. This week I share with you the September 3rd press release from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops announcing this transition. Please join me in praying for Archbishop Peter and Archbishop Paul—signs of unity and Shepherds of Christ’s flock here in Western Washington.

In Christ,

Fr. tom

Pope Francis Appoints Bishop Paul Etienne as Archbishop of Seattle; Accepts Resignation of Most. Rev J. Peter Sartain from the Pastoral Governance of the Same See

September 3, 2019

WASHINGTON—Pope Francis has appointed Coadjutor Archbishop Paul Etienne as Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Seattle and accepted the resignation of the Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain from the pastoral governance of the same see.
The appointment and resignation were publicized in Washington, DC, on September 3, 2019 by Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States.
Archbishop Etienne graduated from University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota obtaining a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in 1986. He served with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) as Assistant Coordinator for Papal Visits for Pope John Paul II to the United States. He later pursued his ecclesiastical studies at Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, where he obtained a bachelor’s in Sacred Theology in 1995.
His assignments included: Vocation Director at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in New Albany, Spiritual Director at St. Meinrad School of Theology, Vice-Rector of the Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary, member of the Archdiocesan Review Board, pastor at St. Simon and several other parishes.
Archbishop J. Peter Sartain was ordained a priest in 1978 in Memphis, Tennessee. He served as Bishop of the Diocese of Little Rock from 2000 to 2006 and then served as Bishop of Joliet from 2006 to 2010.
Archbishop Sartain serves on a number of Catholic boards and has served as Secretary of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. He is the author of several books, including Of You My Heart Has Spoken (Arkansas Catholic, 2005); Strengthen Your Brothers: An Archbishop’s Letters of Encouragement to His Priests (Liturgical Press, 2012), and The Journey to the Heart of Jesus (Our Sunday Visitor, 2014).
The Archdiocese of Seattle is compromised of 24,814 square miles in the state of Washington and has a total population of 5,501,540 of which 863,000 or 15.7 percent are Catholic.

25º domingo del tiempo ordinario

“Ningún siervo puede servir a dos patrones, porque necesariamente odiara a uno y amara al otro. Ustedes no pueden servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero”. LUCAS 16:13

¿Es el dinero un "dios" que pones ante Dios? Dar dinero para apoyar a la Iglesia y otras organizaciones benéficas es un pilar de nuestra fe, al igual que asistir a misa todos los domingos y participar en el ministerio parroquial. Dar dinero nos libera de ser esclavos del dinero. Aumenta nuestra dependencia de Dios y nuestra confianza en que Dios proporcionará todo lo que necesitamos.

Queridos amigos,

Es posible que hayas notado un nuevo nombre en nuestras oraciones eucarísticas en las Misas en estas últimas dos semanas. En lugar de nombrar a "Francisco nuestro Papa y Pedro nuestro Obispo", ahora oramos por "Francisco nuestro Papa y Pablo nuestro Obispo". Nuestro nuevo arzobispo de la Arquidiócesis de Seattle es el reverendo Paul Etienne. Esta semana comparto con ustedes el comunicado de prensa del 3 de septiembre de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos anunciando esta transición. Por favor, únase a mí para orar por el arzobispo Peter y el arzobispo Pablo, señales de unidad y pastores del rebaño de Cristo aquí en el oeste de Washington.

En Cristo,

P. Tom

Thank You to our Extraordinary Ministers who faithfully take Holy Communion to the sick and homebound in our parish!  Your ministry is so important to us here at Sacred Heart! To make your ministry a little easier when taking communion to the homebound, it is no longer necessary to put the pyx on the table in the back of the church. The current procedure, if a parishioner is taking Communion to someone, is to keep the Pyx and just simply have it open when you receive Communion. The priest or EM will then put a host in your Pyx and your are on your way to serve our homebound and sick!  THANK YOU!
